ASSIGNEE'S GOOD RACE.

Over 8,000 persons celebrated about an excellent afternoon's racing at Sheffield. It was the largest crowd that has been at an Indiana track. The stands and betting ring were crowded, the bleachers filled, and there was an overflow into the infield. The management had outdone itself in patriotism. The stars and stripes floated from every point of vantage, and the buildings were festooned with the national colors. In the centre of the infield from a tall flagstaff, a large and brand new "Old Glory" spread itself to the breeze, and to cap all the orchestra played national airs.

There were seven events on the card, the principal being the Liberty Purse at two miles, the Independence Handicap at a mile and the Steeplechase handicap at a mile and a quarter.

The Liberty Purse was the fourth event of the day and as two mile races are few and far between, great interest was taken in it. Out of the seven entered, Sullross was the only absentee and he is suffering from colic. Sunny, with Pete Clay up, was made favorite, with Marcel second choice. The highly weighted Belvoir set out to make the running, and at the half he led by three lengths with Tasco second four lengths in front of King Bors. Passing the stand the first time, Belvoir still led by two lengths with Tasco a neck before Sunny and Marcel fifth.

For the next half mile Belvoir and Sunny raced together head and head, with Marcel five lengths behind them and running easily. Round the far turn Marcel commenced to make ground, and as they came into the stretch she was only half a length behind the leaders. It was evident now she had the race won, and directly Dorsey called on her she went to the front and won eased up.

In the Independence Handicap Caesarian declined the issue and Assignee was favorite though, as good as even money was laid against him. Off last, Dorsey sent Assignee to the front at once, and remaining there, he won easily in the fast time of 1:40½, Ingomar beating the old mare, Ida Pickwick, which "Tiny" Williams had come especially to ride.

St. Brandon was scratched in the steeplechase, and his stable companion, My Luck, was favorite. Carmel acted badly at the post, and refused the first jump. My Luck made the running, but in taking the water jump he stumbled on landing and fell. Owens, his jockey, escaping with a shaking. Miles Standish was in front the remainder of the way, followed by Cunarder and Hercules. In the stretch Miles Standish looked like a winner, but Hercules got up in the last few strides and beat him a head with Cunarder close up third.

The opening race for 2-year-olds was won easily by the favorite, Marie C, who getting away well in a bad start beat Henry Clay, a good thing from the Elkton Stock Farm. Clay got a bad start.

In a hard drive Freddie L T just beat the favorite, May Fern, in the three-quarters of a mile selling race.

The race for two-year-old maiden fillies brought out three good ones in Kate Fisher, Elizabeth B, and Loulou R. The first named was the tip, but Elizabeth B ran all over her and won easily.

The last race was merely a gallop for Caesarian, who won easily after Rubberneck had made the running.

After winning the Liberty Purse, Marcel was run up $700 over her entered price by L. A. Legg and bought in.

THE EASTERN TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Captain Absolute, always an intelligent writer about Eastern racing, truly comments on the elastic medicrity of the Metropolitan two-year-olds as follows:

"Two-year-old form here is yet a puzzle. Don d'Oro, the winner of the Eclipse at Morris Park, ran a shocking race for the Great American on June 13th, getting off fourth and staying there. On the 20th he won the Tremont stakes in great style. Thus he has reinstated himself in popularity. He is a slashing big chestnut by Rayon d'Or—Belladonna, by Hermit. Mr. Belmont bred him and should he turn out well he may send him to England to race for next year's Derby. Rhodesia, in Mr. Keene's stable, is a great filly. She ran third for both the Great American and Tremont after being very ill and having been let up in her work. George Kessler, the colt which won the Great American on the 13th, is, curiously enough, a son of Salvator and Miss Woodford, and should be a race horse by inheritance, being by the champion horse and from the champion mare of America. He is a liver-colored chestnut, with white face tion of $75 each, which subscription shall entitle the entry to start in all three handicaps, viz., the Fall, the Ocean, and the Omnium, without additional cost, and also to be handicapped free if declared for all over-night handicaps at the autumn meeting, thereby saving the usual declaration fee. The dates of these races will be published in the programme book of the meeting. Weights for each of these handicaps will be announced three days before the race.

Fall Handicap, $1,500; handicap for three-year-olds and upwards. ¾ mile on main track—Ocean Handicap, $1,000; handicap for three-year-olds and upward. 1 mile.

Omnibus Handicap, $2,000; handicap for three-year-olds and upward 11-8 miles.

Overnight Indexed Charts and Entries.

There are many calls for DAILY RACING FORM's indexed entries. Hereafter they will be furnished at office at 50 cents per track at 9:30 p. m. or sent at subscriber's expense by special messenger at 50 cents per set and messenger fees. A chart of the days racing at the track they cover can be delivered with them for 50 cents more.

and legs, but while a sturdy compacture, he lacks the length and liberty of both his parents.

Indeed, the two-year-old form is rather bewildering. The change from the straightaways of Morris Park to the sharp turns of Brooklyn no doubt had something to do with it, for certainly some horses like one kind of a course and others another kind. McCafferty has a string of splendid two-year-olds, but they run so in and out they drive backers to despair. Of course, it is too early to judge the two-year-old form as yet. Many of the most promising ones have been ill with the epidemic influenza and have not started.

Speaking of this reminds me that a great change has taken place within the last year among our people. Usually they have gone wild each year over some two-year-old, and forgetting all that had gone before have hailed him "the greatest ever seen in America." So regularly did they keep this up that it became ridiculous and often when I have ventured to suggest that possibly they were a moderate lot, I have been hooted at. Now they have assumed a close manner and you will hear some whipper snapper, whose racing experience scarcely dates from the Columbian year, telling his friends that the two-year-olds are a "bad lot." The infection has spread and the affection has become quite general.

The cheapest horse sold this season is Patrician, who was sold by P. J. Dwyer to Eugene Leigh for $2500 and has won two races since and thus winning him out. Patrician was in great form at Brooklyn. Another cheap horse was Shakespeare, the three-year-old Mr. Fleischmann paid $5,000 for at Morris park, and he won eight races before he was beaten, and then only in a handicap which he attempted to give away his year by running Patrician at even weights. Still another cheap horse was Lithos, purchased by Mr. Arkell, owner of Judge, the comic paper. He paid $4,000 for the colt and won three stakes with him in less than a fortnight, of the value of $10,500.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Buck Massie's racing for the month will be done at Milwaukee. He will arrive at the State Park Club's track Monday.

Judge Burke cannot officiate at Detroit. J. W. Brooks of St. Louis, a competent man is likely to be one of the Detroit judges.

Riley Grannan is again $100,000 strong. When Irish Reel won at Coney Island he got 12 to 15 to 1 for a big bet and won $35,000 or $40,000.

Atholstone, an English horse by Hawkstone Paladin's sire, out of a Blair Athol mare and the sire of Cherry Leaf died last week in Kentucky. He had only been in America three years.

Winner—Br f, by Iroquois—Ollie.
Post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; next three driving. Henry Clay is a good colt and with an equal break would have given the winner an argument. C H Whelan was cut off shortly after start but came on again and finished very strong. Cherryflame's race would not do. Brescia is a counterfeiter. Laredo showed some speed. Thomas Paine gave it up when the pinch came.

Winner—Ch. h, 5, by Iroquois—Nellie Van.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive; second and third same. Barguard had early speed but tired when the real racing began. May Fern stood the drive well. Freddie L T won on his courage. Brodhead was in a pocket all the way. Lucinda's race was a good one. She is very inconsistent. Dago is of no account these days. Loudon never had any speed. Scratched—Victoria, 97; Designer, 110; Ramona, 103.

Winner—B. f. by Jim Gore—Becky Sharpe.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next three driving hard. The winner has a rare turn of speed. When she made her run the others seemed to be standing still. Kate Fisher is a good game filly but was a trifle green. She stood the drive well. Loulou R was badly messed about on far turn. She will do. Outside of the first three it was a cheap lot. Scratched—Allegro, 101.

Winner—B. m, 5, by Luke Blackburn—Martica.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won eased up; second and third driving. Marcel had them all beaten after first mile was run. Boy made too much use of Belvoir, who ran a real good race. Sunny made his run after first mile. He seemed to be winning at three furlongs pole, but gave it up in the stretch. King Bors ran an honest race. Scratched—Sullross, 107.
